Amongst the team that we are planning to take we have one young girl who is a refugee and another who's family have moved from Nigeria. Neither of these young girls have ever travelled abroad apart from moving to England. We would be the only club from Billingham entering this tournament, and it will undoubtedly put Billingham on the map amongst many other successful international clubs. The interest that the tournament will generate will be huge and we believe that this will attract many other local young people to come along to the club, giving them something to strive for and work towards. Taking them off the streets and giving them a good community to belong to.
21.	How many people in Billingham do you expect to benefit directly from the project?	We will be taking 5 female boxers to the tournament. We believe that this will generate interest amongst other young girls in Billingham and attract them to the sport, along with young boys alike. Within our squad there is also 2 Muslim girls. We hope that this will show other females in the Muslim community that boxing and BBA is an inclusive club and encourage them to participate in the sport.
22.	Please advise the timescale for the project.	7 days
23.	Will the project require ongoing financial support? If so, how will this be funded?	No
